ICLS meeting: Kalamazoo 2011

May 12, 2011

The minutes follow the order of the Agenda.

- 1. The meeting was called to order at 9:22 PM.
- 2. Minutes of 2010 Kalamazoo meeting: There were no minutes; Chris Callahan's report will be circulated over the summer.
- 3. Janina made the announcements:
  - --introduction of current board members
- --election of new board members: to fill positions currently occupied by Rockwell (French) and Burr (French).
- -- volunteers were requested. Stephanie Cain van D'Elden (German) offered when asked; and Judith Davis (French) agreed. It was moved that these would be the candidates and nominations were closed; they are now accepted as new board members.
- 4. Treasurer's report: Chris Callahan's designee, Janina, circulated the report; there are $18,436.09 in the bank. The charge for Encomia is not present; we're now switching to printing only electronically. Questions were raised: Where is MLA cash bar contribution? And was there not a charge for the cash bar from the Kalamazoo meeting last year?

The report was accepted unanimously with emendations: that would include Encomia, MLA and Kzoo Cash Bar costs.

5. Encomia report: Logan Whalen's report was delivered by Janina Traxler in Logan's absence. Volumes 32-33 will be double; it should be out at the end of this year or the beginning of the next year.

Janina made a request for reviewers and books to review, especially in German; send suggestions to Logan.

- 6. Next year (2012) will be the 40th anniversary of ICLS. We need to talk about about anniversary projects. Janina offered two and then took suggestions from the floor. Her points:
- -- should we create a subcommittee to take ideas/set up?
- we don't know what if anything the international branch is doing (Keith B. might know, Janina will check); our branch should do something since we started it here at Kzoo.
- -- at least one session should be something about the ICLS at 40.

- --perhaps we should consider a one-time travel award for grad student; that a branch committee receive the applications (that would need a recommendation from their dissertation supervisor), and then the paper accepted would be considered for the RMMLA retroactively;
- --should alternatively there be a prize for the best paper?
- --should this include underemployed/untenured people also?
- --Stephanie Van Elden noted that there were historians at first meetings and it would be nice to get them involved again; one topic type that might pull them in would be The Role of court and ??
- B. Start a fund to create a fund for travel in the future (member with a name etc.)

Stephanie noted that we still need and want more members.

C. Susann Samples wondered how to advertise the ICLS: maybe a table? And announcing it at each session, as well as requiring that everyone join in order to participate.

A subcommittee was formed, consisting of: Judith, Stephanie, Sarah Grace H., Jeanina, Wendy for the 40th. The proposal passed.

7. Proposals for upcoming sessions of ICLS at various conferences were then considered: Kalamazoo 2012 (3 needed) deadline is June 1; and MLA 2013 (one)

Courtly world and eco-criticism (Albrecht)

- --Food vocabulary in literature; importance of culinary history (Wendy Pfeffer--could organize)
- --Shadow figures (doppleganger figures, ghosts, shadow characters)
- -- Costume or disguise
- --Art of hospitality
- --Sibling rivalry
- --suggestions from the floor

ICLS at 40: a retrospective (Patrick Aloysius Thomas?) – by Board—Janina

Celebrations at court – (Wendy)

Games at court: medieval and neo-medieval (Casey Casebier)

Unamimously accepted

8. Congratulations were offered on new books:

"Our lady's lawsuits", L'avocacie notre dame et la chapellerie notre dame by Judith and Ron A. (published by ACMRS); and

Albrecht Claasen's Handbook of Medieval Studies

Courtly seductions modern subjections ACMRS

Info about the MLA? Timing? Checking for next year.

9. The meeting adjourned at 10:11 to laments about the missing cash bar;)

Respectfully submitted,

Leslie ZarKer Morgan, Vice-President and Secretary pro-tem